HOMECOMING, 1984

King Larry Hewitt
Queen Laura Hix

Homecoming, 1984, was celebrated on September 28. Some of the activities which preceded the Homecoming game and dance was a bubble gum blowing contest won by Shelley Whittaker and Stephanie Gripp; a sack race in which Larry Hewitt for the Seniors and Amy Hall for the Freshmen were victorious; a yelling contest won by the Seniors; a pudding eating contest which was won by Roger DeBrock and Renee Fordham for the Seniors. The parade was held on Friday which saw the Seniors winning first, the Juniors winning second, the Freshmen with a third, and the Sophomores placing fourth. A victory over DePue highlighted this year's event on Friday night. For a finale, everyone enjoyed the dance held in the Activity Room with Dutch Masters of 97X providing the music.

WINTER DANCE

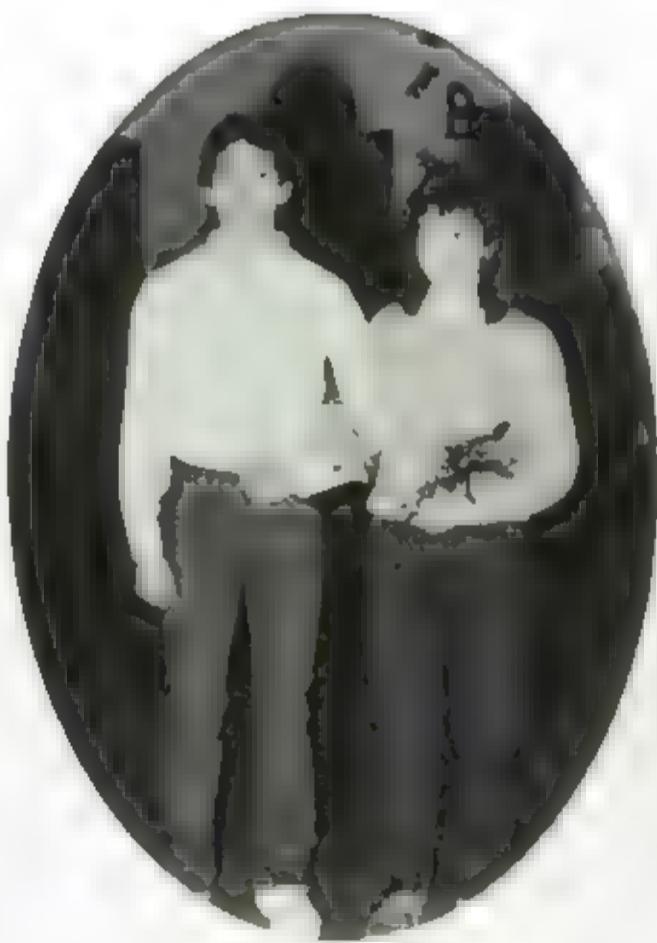

King Mike Jacobson
Queen Renee Fordham

The Home Economics Club sponsored a winter dance on March 9 in the activity room. Green and white St. Patrick's Day decorations were used to enhance the theme "Irish You the Best of Times." Music was provided by "After Ten," a disc jockey that played the latest hits. Informal attire, great music, and good friends all combined to create an enjoyable evening!!

Laura Hix — Head nurse of the Cadavar Dept. at Prairie View Nursing Home and owner of her own company, "Beautiful Body Bags by Laura."

Donald (Burthead) Hotchkiss — Now a farmer is Jamaica. (What he farms is not known.) He also owns a Jamaican Supply Company (What he supplies is unknown, but we're told he's rolling in the dough!)

Jeanna (Jabber) Hunt — Jeanna's married to John Daley. They have purchased the TWIN-KIE Co. They can be seen in cowboy boots, gun & holster, cowboy hats, the whole bit because they are "Twinkie the Kid and Mrs Twinkie."

Joe (Sepie) Hunt — Now recording manager for the richest record company in the world. He's too busy to be bothered by his old friends, because he's too busy throwing dinner parties for Olivia, REO, and all his other buddies

Mike (Duck) Jacobson — Now the owner of Canadian Airlines, and author of Ducks Do It Better!

Sandy (Smurfette) Lane — Head nurse of the "Athlete Injury Dept," and player/nurse for the Northern Ill. Univ. Huskies.

Tina (Old Lady) McMahon — Now "Chief" Pumper at Beck's Gas Station in Princeton. She also owns a home for "Old Ladies."

Wendy and Joe (Mama and Papa) Michlig — Owners of the Michlig Steak House where Joe cooks the steaks because only HE knows how to cook a steak

Corey (Cornbore) Miller — In jail for protesting the production of Lorsban 1SG Cornbore killer. Up for parole in 1997

Mark (Mole) Miller — Owner of the Good-year Tire Co. Bought out Mitch's share of Doty Oil Co. and renamed it "Mole's Hole"

Laura Pierson — Best divorce lawyer in Bureau County

Mike (always late) Thompson — Mike can be seen on his way to the audition for the part of Spiccoli in Fast Times at Ridgemont High — Part II

Laurie (Laurie June) Wessel — Kindergarten teacher at Manlius. Due to past experiences, and her wonderful talent, she has replaced Mr. Ricci as Driver's Ed. teacher. Look out world, here comes Laurie!

Leanne (Flea) Worsley — Still living in the Manlius area. Bought Weaver's in Princeton with her profits from "Flea's Flea Market."

WILLS

I, Joe Andrews, being of stressed mind and exhausted body, leave to Monica Nodine my faithful and trustworthy companion, Fang; to Corey Miller, the phone numbers of 4 girls from New Athens; to Heidi Cooper, an endless supply of stamped envelopes and 4 free long distance calls a month

I, Scott Carlson, being of corrupted mind and body, leave to Monica Nodine a giant clock to hang outside her house; to Corey "the gambler" Miller, a marked deck of cards so he will win on Thursday nights; to Mrs. Peterson, a rowdy study hall and a fighting Illini shirt

I, Kim Cooper, being of sound mind and body, will to Ms. Brokaw and next year's Typing II class my ability to giggle through a whole hour over nothing.

I, Roger DeBrock, being of very little mind and too much body, will to Mrs. Peterson the Spanish version of Frosty the Snowman; to Rob Verdick, my 1/4 of Milwaukee and my key to St. Louis; to Mr. Lane, all of the demerits he has threatened to give us but never did; to Mrs. Dumney, a pair of sneakers so she won't have to tiptoe around the room

I, Renee Fordham, being of unused mind and abused body, will to my baby brother a $100,000 life insurance policy for next years football season and to the rest of the team the ability not to make him use it. To Monica Nodine, a book entitled "101 Excuses to Give to Your Parents When you Come Home Late" and to all of her dates change for the new parking meter which is going to be installed in her driveway soon.

I, Wade Gerbitz, being of half-wit mind and body will to Mr. Ricci a pair of 501 Blue's and the ability to keep his fingers out of the butterdish; to Mrs. Hahne, an 8th hour PE class instead of study hall.

I, Stephanie Gripp, will to my brother, Chad, a T-shirt that says "I Love Missy"; to Amy Hall, an interview with Paul Masson. — maybe he'd bottle her "whines"; to Mr. Lane and the girls basketball team, all the luck in the world.

I, Jennifer Hansen, being of sound mind and body will Laurie Wessel a lemon so she has something to "squeeze"; to Gayle Hartz, a full supply of Nestea for saving my life; also to the school, a new PA system with sound effects so it really sounds like God.

I, Larry Hewitt, being of somewhat sound mind and body, will to Roger DeBrock the name "Mad Jack" because he's more like "Mad Jack" than a "No. 7"; to Carl Etheridge, a starring role in The Karate Kid II; to Joe Hunt, the common sense to change to the better team — the Bears; to Scott Carlson and Wade Gerbitz, lifetime membership into the exclusive Phi Slama Jama Club.

I, Julie Higginbotham, being of unused mind and deprived body, leave to Tina McMahon a wig for her bald friend, "Little B"; to Jeanna Rae, a "peach" medicine to prevent unexplainable neck rashes that seem to appear overnight.

I, Laura Hix, will to Amy Hall a pacifier to suck on so she won't have to whine as much; to Stephanie Gripp, the ability to talk without using her hands or clicking her tongue.

I, Donald Hotchkiss, being of useless body, leave to Mark "Mole" Miller a set of claw clippers, to Laura Pierson, a weekend in Jamaica; to the underclassmen, the ability to write your own notes all year and not get caught.

I, Jeanna Hunt, being of jabbered mind and just as deprived body as Julie's will to Chris Wirth all the profits from my future company, "The Doll That Does Everything, Jabber Rae"; to Julie Higginbotham, a bomb so she can blow up South Euclid, and an EVAD pill to keep you dancing so you won't steal other people's glasses.

I, Joe Hunt, being of demented mind and questionable body will to all Hawkeye fans a box of crunch and munch for losing to Northwestern (so they'll keep their mouths shut); to Chickenman, a supply of passes so he can BALK his way out of study hall; to Larry Hewitt, tickets to see the US gold medalist, Mary Lou Retton at, the '88 Olympics.

I, Mike Jacobson, being of sound mind and body, will to Marc Fordham my pair of corrective shoes and a pair of slippers so he doesn't have to tie his shoe laces, and my ½ of Milwaukee and my 2 keys to the city of St. Louis; to Chucky Oloffson, enough football pads to cover his entire body; to the underclassmen football players, this year's seniors' ability to have a winning season

I, Sandra Lane, being of exhausted mind and tall body do hereby will my brother Jim all his clothes back which I have confiscated throughout the year, and also my ability to be thin, to Brenda White, an English grammar book that shows the correct uses and forms of the verb "be"; finally, to next year's girls basketball team, all the patience and understanding possible, which they'll definitely need to get along with their coach

I, Tina McMahon, being of perverted mind and body will to Marc Fordham his own chicken farm, to Jeanna a hat that says "Chief"; to Julie, her own diamond store because she's a "jewel"; to Monica, her own "Convenient" store.

I, Joe Michlig, being of sound mind and used body, will to Moleman Mark Miller, a set of steel claws; to Rob Verdick the ability to kiss a girl on the first date instead of being chicken; to Chad Gripp, a trip to the Nashville Draft House.

I, Wendy Michlig, being of tortured mind and body, leave to Jeanna Rae, a two years pass for seeing John anytime she wants at no costs; to Julie Higginbotham, a catalytic converter for her car.

I, Corey Miller, being of abnormal mind and abused body, will to Rob Verdick, a truckload of Rice Krispies and one milk cow; to Monica Nodine, a new pair of kitty claws; to Doug Thompson, a new BUBBLE blowing set; to Mrs. Peterson, a year's supply of Diet Coke; to Mr. Lane, the 534 demerits he threatened to give out and never did; to the Senior Class Secretary of 1986, I will the official sword of Bore War

I, Mark Miller, being of demented mind and unused body, do hereby will to Rob Verdick, my quarter of Milwaukee; to Marc Fordham, my master key to the city of St. Louis so he can get in at any time; and to Becky Martin, some sore throat medicine so she is able to swallow

I, Laura Pierson, being of demented mind and sound body, will to Donald and Tracy, 2 weeks of perfect sunsets; also to Tracy, a year's supply of ding ding fries and water in case she needs it in the middle of no where.

I, Mike Thompson, being of sound mind and hairy body, will all underclassmen, my ability to stay awake in all my classes and to come to school on time, to Renee Fordham, the ability to hide in a closet without being found to Mark Miller a Hardees Digger the Mole

I, Krista VanDeKeere, will to Mr. Ricci the permission to watch next year's girls PE class do the 20 Minute Workout (this is due to the fact that I won't be here). Also, I will Bobby Sierens some of my height.

I, Laurie Wessel, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will next year's MHS students the ability to disobey St. Handbook.

I, Leanne Worsley, being of sound mind and body, will to Don Hotchkiss a year's supply of typing paper and erasers so I can get something done; to Jeff Hochstatter, a muzzle so he can keep his mouth shut for once. To Chad Gripp, a book of 100 mind boggling questions because he thinks he "nose" it all

SENIOR TRIP

This year the Seniors left before the end of the school year on a trip to Florida. Upon arriving, the class found they were to travel in style when only one van (instead of two) and two Lincoln Continentals awaited their arrival. The first two days were spent at Sea World and Disney World which included the Hoop Dee Doo Review at Disney World. On the fourth day, Wet 'n Wild provided the entertainment which included some very good sunburns!! Busch Gardens and the St. Petersburg beach were on the agenda for the next day. The sixth day saw many relaxing with a dinner theater that night. On the last full day, some went shopping and some just relaxed in their rooms as it was raining outside. Leaving St. Petersburg at 12:30 for the flight home, the classs arrived at MHS about 9:00 p.m.
